

FOLLOW ME

Luke 9:28-62

Jesus is speaking to the church and He says come and follow me! Follow me through the mountains and through the valleys. As our idea of greatness is reestablished, not being concerned with profile, numbers, riches or influence, but greatness in the eyes of our Father, we don't have to compare, compete or drag down anyone that is doing something else for Jesus. He is calling us to be kind, unbelievably kind, as people expect God and church to judge them He and we respond with kindness, unbelievable kindness, and you are called to get your head in the game as we change the world.

WE ARE ON AN AMAZING JOURNEY AND EVERY GIFT COUNTS, FROM PUMPKINS TO PIGGY BANKS,
FROM PROPERTIES TO PRIVATE BANKS.

1. God is calling us as a church to follow him, through the mountains and the valleys.
2. Greatness in God's eyes is different to greatness in our eyes.
3. God is going to use other people, so there is no need to compare, compete or criticise.
4. How are we going to do this? We will be real, relevant, relational, and ridiculously kind.
5. Get your head in the game and add momentum to the forward movement of the church.

Question

1. What did you hear that you never heard before?
2. What did you see that you've never seen before?

When Jesus says, "Come follow me," sometimes you follow Jesus and it leads to food in a lounge and sometimes you follow His footsteps because we going on a journey.
